AMUSEMENTS.

A TRIP TO SWITZERLAND.
The "Le Voyage en Suisse" Company closed its engagement here yesterday with matinee and night performances. The attendance was light owing to various causes and not what the excellence of the company merited.

"BARBARA FRIETCHE." which comes to the Academy to-morrow, matinee and night, is from the pen of Clyde Fitch, who taking a suggestion from Whittier's celebrated poem, created a Barbara Frietche of tender and golden years, gave her a brave hero in blue for a lover, and then providing the necessary sacrifices and vicissitudes wove a love story around her that for beauty and tragic interest is as heart-holding and powerful as "Romeo and Juliet." Miss Ellsler's greatest successes on the stage have been identified with heroines of this kind, who are one moment in the transports of the sweet passion, and the next in the vale of tears. She is perfect mistress of the art of picture-making, happy love-lit maidenhood, and of giving expression to genuine moving paths, and thus equipped she should make a successful and delightful "Barbara Frietche." In the cast with her will be such well-known players as Frank Weston, Charles Chappelle, Charles Steadman, Carol Arden and Alice Leigh.

MRS. SARAH COWLE LEMOYNE. Liebler & Co., who this season own and manage fourteen theatres, take particular pride in the excellence of the companies which surround their stars. Their companies support Miss Viola Allen, James O'Neill, James A. Herne and Mrs. Sarah Cowell Lemoine. They claim to pay the highest salaries to the most competent actors and actresses, and look to them to always give their best efforts, and thus never break faith with their patrons. The company supporting Mrs. Lemoine this season includes Adelaide Thurston, who succeeded Maude Adams as the star of "The Little Minister." Mr. and Mrs. Glendinning, for several seasons the leading players in Olga Netherole's company; Walter Thomas, who made a hit as the impetuous youth on the original company playing "Secret Service." Harold Russell and Charles Stanley, who for years played important roles in the companies of the late Charles Coghlan and Hoyt & McKee. This company will be seen at the Academy of Music next Monday night.

Conductors' Benefit Concert.
There was a large audience at the Odd Fellows' hall last night, the occasion being the entertainment given for the motormen and conductors of the Norfolk Street Railway Co. The number was rendered faultlessly. The work of Mr. Ernest Linwood and Mr. Lloyd Dalby was excellent. These gentlemen kept the audience in a continuous roar of laughter with their comic songs and funny sayings. The rendition of "My Creole Sue," by Miss Twiford, also was delightful.

The following was the program:
1. Overture ..... Campbell
2. Solo ..... Mr. Harry P. Ferguson, accompanied by Mrs. A. E. Campbell.
3. Mr. Ernest Linwood in his comic art.
4. Recitation ..... Lloyd Dalby
5. Solo ..... Lloyd Dalby
6. Solo ..... Miss Twiford
7. Selections by Norfolk Mandolin Club
8. Solo ..... Miss Florence Haynes
9. Olympia Quartette, Messrs Williams, Dawley, McGinnis and Plumber.

Phillips, 222 Willoughby avenue, under the auspices of the King's Daughters. Charitable people are asked to remember the poor and unite in making their Thanksgiving day happy.

The Army and Navy Game.
On account of the football game to be played on Saturday, December 1st, between the teams of the naval academy at Annapolis and the West Point cadets, the Old Bay Line will sell on Friday round trip tickets from Norfolk to Philadelphia for $7.50, good for return to December 23. See advertisement in another column.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The Spanish-American war veterans will have a smoker to-night at the armory. There will be an informal entertainment program and a jolly good time is expected.

The Journeymen Plumbers will have a smoker to-night at C. L. U. hall. There will probably be several short addresses and a musical program. Much interest is manifested in the musical, literary and dramatic entertainment to be given to-night at St. Mary's Male academy under the auspices of the Xaverian Brothers. Many of the brightest pupils of the academy are down on the program for pleasing features. The music will be under the direction of Mr. Edward J. Doran. The Christian Endeavorers of this city are invited to take part in a sunrise prayer meeting Thanksgiving Day morning at the Disciples' church, Freemason, between Bank and Brewer streets.

The New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk mail, which has for years been closing at 5:15 p. m., will close at the postoffice in the future at 5:35 p. m., thereby giving the patrons of this office twenty minutes more time. The northern mail closes at 7:45 p. m., and is dispatched via Weldon, N. C.

The Order of the Red Cross was conferred by Grace Commandery at a special assembly last night. A meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association—a feature of the female institutions of learning in Virginia, will be held at the Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Saturday, Sunday and Monday next. Delegates will be in attendance from this city.

Mayor C. Brooks Johnston and City Engineer W. T. Brooke intend to go to Charleston, S. C., to attend the meetings of the League of American Municipalities. The sessions will begin on December 10 and last five days. The meeting last year was at Syracuse, N. Y. Both of these officials attended that also.

The friends of the city union of the King's Daughters are requested to observe this their annual shower day by sending to 251 Fenchurch street donations of money, fuel or provisions. All donations will be used in caring for the sick poor of the city.

The preacher at the Norfolk conference who stated that his salary had been overpaid 16 cents was allowed to keep the change for his honesty. Here is a sermon for young men—Richmond News.

Mr. Henry O. Heltman, engineer of the tug Katie, is ill at his residence, No. 29 James street, this city.

Attention is called to the advertisement of W. J. Halstead, which appears in another column, announcing a large sale of house furniture at No. 294 Bute street, corner Boush, this morning at 11 o'clock.

A Great Fight

Age and you seem to be having a terrible struggle. It's ten to one you will get whipped—unless you do something. Restore color to your gray hair with Ayer's Hair Vigor. You will look twenty years younger, and the fight with age will be over. Always restores color, never fails, never.

If you do not obtain the benefit you desire from use of the Vigor, write the Doctor about it. He will tell you just the right thing to do. Address, Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

Blanket Bargain.

$6 White Blankets, $3.19.

We repeat Monday's big bargain.

Strictly all pure wool—extra large 12-4 white blankets at $3.19 instead of $6.

The reason is this:—a few tiny black specks appear on their surface, but which in no wise impairs their excellent quality.

Blue, red and pink borders. Silk bound.
